Mr.Geogy Jocob i/b Geogy Jecob for the Petitioner.

CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH, J.

DATED: 12TH FEBRUARY,2007

P.C.:

. The court admittedly did not grant any ad-interim order in favour of the Respondents who were Plaintiffs in the civil suit. They issued the public notice advising public that in view of the pendency of their suit in this court any transaction they will be entering into with the Defendants would be subject to result of that suit and they advised the people not to enter into such transaction.

. By no stretch of imagination the conduct of the Respondent of issuing public notice can be termed as disobeydience of the order passed by this court. Petition is, therefore, disposed of.
